

Gets the Message Across!

Over the years I've worked on thousands of ads, specializing in getting clients' messages across to their potential customers, listening to their concerns and working with them. Creativity, communication, and consistency going hand in hand.

Wide Variety of Experience!

In addition to the regular newspaper publications, we've produced hundreds of other publications—magazines, tabloids, calendars... plus the award-winning web site, eptrail.com. I've designed covers, logos and more!

Communication through design!

It's not just ads, logos, covers, web sites, special sections, and managing departments, but I also rise to the challenge of assisting the editorial department tell their feature stories with eye-catching and accessible design.
